

S. MAHAULU PARDONED

Below is given the list of acts of clemency toward prisoners performed by Governor Carter, which took effect yesterday in anticipation of Christmas:

FULL PARDON.

Stephen Mahaulu was convicted in the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii, before the Honorable John T. De Bolt, on the 10th day of April, A. D. 1905, of the crime of embezzlement, and sentenced on the 13th day of April, 1905, to be imprisoned at hard labor for the term of one year and pay the costs of court. Granted a full pardon. Mahaulu was chief clerk in the Land office under E. S. Boyd.

CONDITIONAL PARDONS.

Joao Cordeiro was convicted on the 27th day of November, 1902, in the Circuit Court of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, of the offense of larceny in the second degree, stealing from the estate of W. H. Rickard one steer, value $25, in the district of Kamakua, Island of Hawaii. He was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for twenty years, and to pay the costs of the prosecution.

His conditional pardon was recommended by the Board of Prison Inspectors; by a petition signed by 30 citizens on the Island of Hawaii, by another signed by his wife, and another by Rev. Father Adrian Yzendoorn of Hilo.

Mathias Baptista was convicted in the Circuit Court of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, of the offense of larceny in the second degree, stealing from the estate of William H. Rickard, one steer, value $25. He was sentenced to be imprisoned at hard labor for two years and to pay a fine and costs.

CIVIL RIGHTS RESTORED.

George Mai was convicted of the crime of gross theft, November 7, 1888, in the Third Circuit Court of the Third Judicial Circuit, before Justice R. P. Bickerton and Associate Justice S. L. Austin, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor, and to pay a fine of $20 with costs of prosecution. He served said sentence. At the time of committing the crime he was only eighteen years of age, and had not the right to vote.

His restoration to civil rights was recommended by the members of the Board of Prison Inspectors for the district.

SPORTS IN HILO TOWN

The big island is going to spread itself from a sporting standpoint on New Year's Day, horse racing, baseball and other sports being planned.

Horse racing, it will be remembered, once flourished in Honolulu, a track for that purpose being maintained in Kapolani Park. Hilo is today the only place in the islands where fleet horses are raced for the love of the thing. The game is dead and buried in Honolulu. Maui, it is said, will hold no more meetings on account of lack of support. Kauai and its famed Kealia stable have given up racing, apparently for good and all.

The Hawaii Jockey Club announces that New Year's Day will be "observed" with races.

To stimulate sport and build up an interest in locally bred horses, several large ranches have entered a number of their best-bred horses. These are being trained at the Hoolulu Park track.

The advertisement in the Hilo papers reads, "They will be matched in races as nearly equal as can be and run honestly. No purses will be paid."

Fancy running for the fun of the thing in Honolulu! How the local turfmen would howl!

Imagine running honest races in this old burg! Why Billy Cunningham would have a fit of blind staggers if he heard of it and those glorious steeds Cyclone and Lambro, fall down dead!

Among the horse which will compete in Hilo are:

Crazy Annie, Permanent, Lillie, Mack, General Arthur, Alpheus, Sleepy Head, St. Yusuf, Harry, Waterford, Good Boy, Antidote, Phillip, Punalua, Lillian, Tom.

A baseball game is expected between Hakalau and Hilo or two Hilo teams. Perhaps the most exciting event of the day will be an automobile race. Who said that Hilo was slow? Honolulu has yet to even talk of an automobile race.

Honokaa, not to be outdone by Hilo, is making arrangements for a red letter celebration of New Year's Day.

There will be races and sports during the day and at night there will be a grand invitational ball at the Lyceum. In the morning there will be a baseball game.

The program and purses are as follows:

No. 1—Japanese race, one-half mile, $25.

No. 2—Lunas' race, one-half mile, $40.

No. 3—Ladies' race, one-half mile, $15.

No. 4—Free-for-all, one-half mile, $100.

No. 5—Cowboy race, one-half mile, $25.

No. 6—Portuguese race, one-half mile, $15.

No. 1—Tong race, fourteen furlongs (short), one-half mile, $25.
No. 2—Japanese race, one-half mile, $25.
No. 3—Free-for-all, one-half mile, $15.
No. 4—Consolation race, one-half mile, $15.
Professional riders are barred.

COMMERCIAL

BY DANIEL LOGAN.

"Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer," would seem to have been adopted by the local stock brokers, according to the following legend at the foot of yesterday's Stock Exchange list: "Notice.—The Exchange adjourns to Saturday, Dec. 30. Summer vacation." As Honolulu is not in "the antipodes," the present season is, technically, winter. Yet the notice is quite appropriate as variously explained—1st, the exchange having been busy then, passed its summer vacation; 2d, it is summer in Hawaii all the time; 3d, the conditions of things justify the application thereto of the Shakespearian metaphor above quoted.

Not that there is much doing in stocks, for the week's sales have been unusually slight in number, but the large crop of sugar expected has started forward to a presently rising market. No substantial reason has appeared for apprehending any severe drop in prices in the year 1906. On the contrary there are grounds of hope that the campaign will at least equal the one just closed, which compares favorably with some of the best Hawaii has ever experienced. At all events the tone here adopted is the appropriate one for Christmas-tide.

While sales have been few, stocks are firmly held. With but one exception the quotations are up to or above those of last week. Centrifugals 96 degrees test in New York have advanced again, this time by $1.25 a ton to $72.50. European beets by yesterday's cable had returned to $74.50, the figure of a week ago.

THE WEEK'S SALES.

Sales of the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange for the week have been as follows: Hawaiian Sugar Co. ($20), 125 at $33.25, 50 at $33; Ewa ($20), 5 at $27.37½, 60 at $27.25, 50, 50 at $27, 10 at $27.12½; Kihei ($50), 50 at $8; Honoum ($100), 50 at $135; Rapid Transit ($100), 110 com. at 60, 5 pref. at $101.50; H. C. & S. Co. ($100), 12 at $82; McBryde ($20), 7 at $5.62½; O. R. & L. Co. ($100), 24 at $87.50; Waiaina ($100), 5 at $70; Onomea ($20), 180 at $30; Oahu ($100), 24 at $87.50; Waiaina 6s, $1000 at $100.75.

REAL ESTATE.

Bishop Libert has bought at private sale, through the agency of Jas. F. Morgan, a tract of 70½ acres at Kalihi, Honolulu, from W. R. Castle for $5500. The land is bought for the site of an orphan asylum, a model farm and a sanitarium to be established by the Catholic Mission.

Through Geo. P. Thielen the Tropic Fruit Co. has bought from L. G. Kellogg 112 acres in fee simple and a lease for seven years on 38 acres of land at Wahiawa for $30,000. About seven years ago the land, then comparatively worthless, was bought from the Government for $1000. Mr. Kellogg has in the meantime done well with pineapple cultivation on the land.

Lewers & Cooke, Ltd., has purchased from the Bishop estate 23,350 square feet of additional land on the esplanade, giving it a frontage upon Punchbowl, Haleakaula and Richards streets. The premises are being graded and the corporation will remove its lumber yard thither from the foot of Fort street. For the new land Lewers & Cooke, Ltd., paid $8172.50.

Deeds have been recorded from H. P. Baldwin and wife to Henry A. Baldwin of a 60-62 interest in lands in Kaunapali, Maui, for $25,000, and from Jacob P. Brown and wife to Minnie H. Gilman of interest in two pieces of land at Kalia road, Honolulu, for $2500. Many heavy releases have lately been registered, which is a good sign of the times. The amount of the release to the Oahu Railway & Land Co. by the Bank of Hawaii, mentioned last week, was $125,000.

After several years of litigation, Joseph O. Carter has had confirmed to him, by decision of Circuit Judge Lindsay, his purchase of Kawaiahao property in the foreclosure suit of Allen vs. Kaikinahaole, together with an award of $3250 damages for detention. Besides a payment of $7293.50 out of proceeds of sale, Geo. W. Macfarlane has obtained from Judge Robinson a deficiency judgment of $6737.21 in his foreclosure suit against Waikiki Seaside Hotel, Ltd. U. S. Judge Dole has rendered judgments awarding Mrs. Elizabeth Schaefer $20,000, and Chun Afong, Julia Afong, Henry Afong and Samuel M. Damon, trustee, $28,000, for Waikiki properties condemned by the United States Government for fortification purposes.

GENERAL BUSINESS NOTES.

An unusually good Christmas trade appears to have been done by the Honolulu storekeepers. Threatened bad weather the first of the week was happily averted, and the streets were thronged afternoon and evening daily with shoppers. Merchants and their assistants only complained—the former smilingly—of hard work. Some of the choicer lines of stocks, especially the more novel ones, were practically cleaned out.

Thielen & Williamson is a new broking firm to make its bow to the public the first of the year. Geo. P. Thielen has taken William Williamson, of the staff of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., into partnership and the firm has taken offices on the Fort street ground floor of the Melbourn block, where it will do a stocks and bonds, real estate and general brokerage business. Both members of the firm are well and favorably known in business circles.

At the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Stockholders' Association, held in Honolulu, addresses were made by Dr. Victor Norgaard on animal diseases, Entomologist Kotinsky on the horn-fly and lantana pests and Director Jared G. Smith of the Federal experiment station on imported grasses. The following officers were elected: A. F. Judd, president; A. W. Carter, vice-president; A. M. Brown, secretary; R. W. Shingle, treasurer; E. P. Low, representative from Hawaii; L. von Tempelky from Maui; J. F. Brown from Molokai; Eric Knudsen from Kauai, and H. M. Von Holt from Oahu.

The U. S. weather bureau's weekly bulletin of Dec. 13 reports unsettled weather with high winds and low temperatures. The growth of young cane had been checked, but conditions had been favorable for harvesting the 1906 crop of sugar. Young pineapple plants were in good condition and the harvesting of the ripe fruit was well begun. In the Kona district of Hawaii the coffee yield was turning out much above the average.

Registered mail hence by the Sonoma the latter part of November was destroyed in a train wreck and fire in Wyoming, but all other mail saved without damage. Remittances through banks thus lost are being refunded on application.

PROMOTION AND DEVELOPMENT.

Applications are in the hands of the Bishop estate trustees from desiring white settlers, now in the country, for about two hundred acres of land in the Kona district, Hawaii. It is the purpose of the applicants to raise cinnamon, cocoa and other condimentary products upon the land.

Land Commissioner Pratt reports an abundance of applications from farmers in the Western States for information of the opportunities for settlement in this Territory.

A press cablegram of the 22d from St. Paul states that the Great Northern Steamship Company is considering a schedule whereby the great steamships Minnesota and Dakota will touch at Honolulu on return trips from the Orient to Tacoma.

John A. McCandless has brought from San Francisco blue-print designs of a steamship adapted for traffic between Honolulu and San Francisco. This is in connection with the agitated project of a locally owned steamer on that route. Mr. McCandless, however, reports that another proposition has been made by a responsible firm to build a vessel for the purpose, the condition of having it built being a guarantee of cargo by Honolulu merchants.

E. D. Whitney, advertising man for the Michigan Central Railway, is here on a ten-days' visit to collect statistics bearing on Hawaiian tourist travel.

H. P. Wood, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, is planning a trip in the spring via Vancouver and the Canadian Pacific Railway to Winnipeg, thence through the Dakotas, Nebraska, Wyoming and Idaho to the northwestern cities of the U. S. Pacific Coast. En route he will establish Hawaii promotion agencies at all principal points of travel. The committee is going to start a crusade for tourists among the wealthy residents of Alaska. Literature will be sent to Nome.

The delegates for Washington to promote the President's announced Hawaiian policy, chosen by the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association are W. O. Smith, M. P. Robinson, G. W. Smith, E. A. McNerny and J. R. Galt. The mercantile bodies of Hilo have selected A. B. Loebenstein as delegate from the Island of Hawaii. D. H. Case, county attorney of Maui, is the choice for that island.

WAIPAHU SCHOOL MERRY CHRISTMAS

The children of the Waipahu school and their friends had a most enjoyable time Friday morning. First came the exercises, which were varied by songs, recitations and stories all bearing upon the subject of Christmas.

After the exercises came the distribution of gifts from a beautiful Christmas tree in which Santa Claus himself took a hand much to the amusement of the children. He was so real that some of the little children fell in terror.

Money and gifts were contributed by the Oahu plantation people and friends of the school.

Hackfeld & Co. sent a most generous contribution. The children had gifts of every description—candies, nuts, raisins, in fact everything to make glad the heart of a child.

Mr. Bail, manager of Oahu plantation, furnished soda water and cake for the two hundred children and their friends. They all voted that they had had the time of their lives.

Waipahu School, Dec. 25, 1906.

It is said that Hooileoku, who died at Palama sixteen days ago, was 105 years old. He was born on Kauai in 1809 and left a comparatively youthful widow of 80 to mourn his loss.
